

Mike Welnetz has been The Laredo Country Club, Director of Tennis, since 1993.

Prior to teaching tennis full-time, he was a social studies teacher in Wisconsin. Full-time tennis professional for the past forty years, prior to teaching full-time at the Laredo Country Club, he taught in tennis clubs in Brookfield, WI, Wausau, WI, and Peoria, IL.

Mike has developed many players to enjoy the lifetime sport of tennis. He has trained many juniors who have played college tennis and have become teaching tennis professionals.

“Watching and helping families develop their relationships while enjoying the sport of tennis, is why I love to have everyone play tennis at The Laredo Country Club.”

